

United States of America } District Court Southern Dist of Alabama } at a Term of the said Court held on the

To the Hon Wm G. Jones, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District aforesaid.

Be it remembered that on this 7th day of August A D 1860, A. J.
Requier, attorney for the United States, comes into Court and in the name of behalf of the United States, gives the said Judge to understand and be informed as follows, to wit: That William Foster, master or commander of the Schooner Clotilda, here to fore to wit: on the day of 1860 arrived from a foreign port or place with the said Schooner in his charge or under his command, within the harbor of the Port of Mobile, it being a port in the United States established by law, in the district aforesaid and within the jurisdiction of this Court.

That the said Master wholly failed to report the arrival of the said schooner Clotilda to the Collector of the said port within the time prescribed by law in such cases made and provided.

That the said Master wholly failed to make the further report in writing to the Collector of said district, prescribed by the 30th section of an act ~~approved~~ entitled "An act to regulate the collection of duties on imports and tonnage," approved 2nd March 1799, which report should contain all the particulars required to be inserted in a manifest & made under the oath or solemn affirmation of the said Master as to the truth of the said report or Manifest as the same ought to be in conformity to the act aforesaid. But all these duties of him required by law, the said William Foster has entirely failed to do and perform - Wherefore the said attorney for the United States prays the advice of this honorable Court in the premises, that process may issue against the said William Foster requiring him to appear and answer this information, that trial may be had thereon according to law and the rules of the Court and that the pay to the United States the sum of One thousand dollars, in conformity to the 30th section of the Act aforesaid
